

RIGHT PLACE FOR THE RIGHT CARE

Where should I take my child?

Pediatrician

You should contact us first, as we know your child's medical history and ongoing health needs, can coordinate the most appropriate care for most situations, and offer same day, after-hours, weekend, and on-call support when issues arise.

- Fever
- Allergies
- Asthma Attack
- Colds/Cough
- Stomach Pain
- Flu
- Pink Eye
- Immunizations
- Long-term illnesses
- Medication Refills
- Rash
- Sore throat
- Sprains
- Wellness Visits
- Hospital Follow Up

Urgent Care Facility

Use urgent care when our office is closed. Check online or call us for same day, after-hours, and weekend appointments.

- Asthma attack (minor)
- Broken bone (if not through skin)
- Bronchitis
- Burn
- Cut (minor)
- Fever (2 months or older)
- Insect or minor animal bite
- Sprain or Strain
- Stitches
- Stomach pain (mild)
- Painful urination
- Vomiting or diarrhea

Emergency Room

Go to the emergency room for severe, life-threatening, or rapidly worsening symptoms

- Burns (major)
- Chest Pain
- Head injury / trauma
- Inability to breathe
- Sudden or severe pain
- Loss of consciousness
- Sudden slurred speech, weakness, visual changes
- Persistent vomiting or diarrhea
- Poisoning or suspected overdose
- Seizures
- Suicidal or homicidal feelings
- Severe allergic reaction due to insect bite, medication or food
- Fever (under 2 months)

Not sure where to go? Call us to help you decide.

Monday - Friday 8am - 5pm
Saturday 8am-4pm
Sunday 8am-12:30pm

